New READING HOOK for Schools.

THE MONITORIAL READER, or a Monitor to Youth, holding up to their view Models whereby to form their own-Characters. By DANIEL, ADAMS, Author of Adams's New Arlthmetic.

EXTRACTS FROM THE PRIPACE.
"THE MONITORIAL READER possesses distinctive traits. The object is to supply what is bea series of exercises relating to what concerns the practical matters of life truth, integrity, honesty, industry, temperance, forethought, fraugality, purhus, endurance of adversity, and whatever else tends to form and fix the character of youth.

We wish to impress it on the minds of those, into where kands these exercises shall come, now, in this seed-time of life, what is here so abundantly inculcared, that 'Every man is emphatically the architect of his own fortune' that with themselves it has whether they shall giver be any thing or nothing that a nonied capital to begin with does not weigh a whit in the balance for or against them that, coming into life with health, strength, capacity for labor, good education, a useful and respectable trade, hababove all, with a GOOD AND UNSUELLED CHARACTER, they have the best of all capital a moral capital: the noblest of all power moral power: and the most certain means of honest and honorable accumulation and fortune, and may be sure, under circumstances ordinarily propitious, to and died; rise to that competency of influence, respect, and well, and yet sufferers have multiplied and died; rise to that competency of influence, respect, and will Not because purging was not necessary, general confidence, and that honorable measure of wealth and independence, which should fully satisfy a reasonable and virtuous ambitiou."

EXTRACTS FROM RECOMMENDATIONS. The influence will all be found on the side of virtue, morality and religion. Occasional comments are given. Difficult or unusual words are defined.

promise of ultimate success in the contest. Boston Recorder.

Dr. Adams: Having examined to some extend your Monitorial Reader, I am pleased with its plan, its object, and the manner in which it has been excouted. It seems adopted to the intellectual and moral improvement of those for whose use it was I trust it will prove to be what its author (Rev.) Z. S. BARNTOW, Keene.

It is just such a book as our New England boys and girls will be glad to see, for it inculeates in a pleasing manner, industry, frugality, truth, honesty, temperance, peace, kindness, fortitude, and a cheerful piety. The Vocabulary, at the end, and the arrangement for defining words, will add to its value in the hands of a judicious teacher.
(Rev.) ABIEL A. LIVERMORE, Keene.

We have also recommendations from a number of individuals and periodicals, among which are D. Crosby, Preceptor of the High School Nashua; J. Newton Brown, Professor of Theology at New Hampton. It is also adopted by the Associations of School Teachers in Cheshire and Hillsboro' counties, and by the School Committee of Concord.

Weekly Summary.

We have had all sorts of weather for the week pest the week baginning as sharp as a needle, and winding off with a warm, spring-like rain, but what the next twenty four hours may produce, is more than we dare hazzard. The Washingtonians have had their brother, Capt. Amold from Bucksport, here, giving good lectures. The Lyceum were well entertained on Tucaday to this city and preach to the Methodists, in the hegan; and Todd of Portland.

Gibson of evening by a Lecture from Henry Call, Esq. on Odeon, which has been lessed to them for the the subject of the Salem Witchcraft. Parties term of five years. Mr. Maffitt is a remarkable and dancing have been considerably in vogue. People begin to attend a little more to the social duties, and neighborly kindnesses than in times past. This will probably make them better, and certainly happier. Sixty-nine persons entered the Methodist church last Sabbath afternoon after the services had commenced, and very few of them probably thought that they were late. This is probably should a sample of all the congregations. We always pity those that are late at meeting because we know they had to wait for somebody to ear dinner first. The sleighing has been very good, and the people in the interior bring in a great sariety of articles to murket. Office-seeking among the locos has been quite rife for several days past, and many of them have gone, probably in imitation of Judge Weston, to urge their claims to the Executive in person. The marriage market has improved considerably within a short time, and a good business has been done by both parties. This is one of the surest evidences of prosperity, and may the indication never be less. I The wife and son of Mr Jonathan Cowen of this city on Saturday morning in starting for Hampden in a sleigh, were thrown out of the fitt certainly gives evidence of having received wleigh, and Mrs Cowen was severely injured by her head striking against a stone post. The boy was also much injured. Mr Cowen is a poor man and has a family of six children; he has been sick with two fevers during the last eight weeks and is still feeble. ILF We regret to learn that John Bennock, Esq., of Orono, while going from his mill to the house, on Friday last, was attacked with a sudden pain, and although medical gid was immediately called in, died in a few minutes. Business with us, just at this time, is rather dull, and money is not to be had, except at exorbitent rates of interest. Notwithstanding this, every thing is life and activity in the religious, literary and scientific world. Maffitt, and Knapp, have created much excitement, crowds have attended upon their ministrations, and no doubt many proselytes to their particular doctrines have been made. He is a very pleasant speaker, and I may say, elequent withali but as to his being a reasoner, an argumentative man, he certainly is not. The seeks rather to please the ear, work upon the feelings, and you may hear him preach a dozen sermons, and listen to him with profound attention, but when you come to sum them all up, you will find there is a bushel of chaff to a quart of wheat. In fact, he is what might be termed, a strictly liam. superficial prescher- He abounds in high sounding words, and gives utterance to a great many beautifully worded sentences. But as the man does not live, with whom we can find no fault, and remembering we can all find fault with those we cannot equal, we will drop Mr. Maffitt and take up Elder Knapp, a celebrated Baptist revivalist.

He has been laboring here a little over a week, and if we were to estimate his talents and piety by the size of his audiences, we should attribute to him more than an ordinary share of both. Knapp and Maffitt are entirely dissimilar. Mafa good education, while Knapp, if he has one, makes but a sorry use of it. Nevertheless he is does it in a homely manner." He evidently believes and feels what he preaches, and as an evidence or proof of his power over his audience, I will state, that on one occasion, after the sermon, from five to six hundred rose, and thus testified their desire for the prayers of God's people. State House, Augusta, Friday, Jan. 7, 1842.

A debate has just sprung up on a report from the Committee to employ some suitable person to perform the duties of Messenger to the House The Committee report, that they have agreed upon Mr. Starbird, at a compensation of $5,00 Bill. per day. Here you see the beginning of Locofoco economy. The whig Mewenger of last winter had but $4 per day. Mr. Otis moved to amend the report by striking out $5 and inserting $3 per day. Mr. Sewall of Oldtown, moved that the report be recommitted, and the Committee be instructed to put the office up at aucreaching the hearts of his heaters, although he office of Messenger, is to be sold officering. The following in the Committee on Mantion. The amendment was accepted by Mr. at auction. Where the sale will take place is not yet known, but I presume sufficient notice will be given. I understand that it is the intention of some of the Speaker's particular friends, to introduce a resolve appropriating a sufficient sum of money to employ a school marm to teach the Speaker to read! I think this a good move, for such bungling, hotch potch masses of reading, I never listened to; his own party are mortified and ashamed. State House, Augusta.). Satorday, Jan. 8, 1842.

The two branches of the Legislature assembled in the Representatives' Hall at 11 o'clock, and proceeded to the choice of seven Councilfor for the current political year, and elected the list which I sent you yesterday. The Locos held a caucus last night and agreed upon Philip C. Johnson for Secretary of State. I understand the vote stood in caucus, Philip C. Johnson, 84; Bowen C. Green 16, and the Hon. David Lothrop-of Waldo 60. There is Proffit and Arnold. Mr. P concluded that he much bad blood manifest this morning among the Locos from Walda, but they must lean that all Waldo has to do is the voting. She has been kicked and cuffed, and beaten, until she knows

"What wood a endgel's of by the blow, And kicked until she can tell whether,

A shoe be Spanish or neat's leather. Waldo has always been the theme of song and sentiment except when she wants any share of the spoils, and then "Kennebec stands a head twelve million loan is made negotiable. and shoulders higher :" however, this is no matter of the Whige, and, therefore, we will let the Locos settle the harsh. The member from Prospect, presented the remonstrance of John Hilferty and certain depositions, against the right of Jonathan Burr of Brewer to hold his seat, which was referred to the Committee on Elections. The Committee appointed to contract with some person for Messenger, reported that they had suplayed Mr. Philips of Turner at a compensation of $3 per day, and the report was accepted. There were TWENTY SEVEN APPLI-CATIONS on file for this little office; they formed a solid column from the Committee room to the bottom of the stairs, some offered as low tion at their meeting last night that no one but a democrat should be Messenger.

The selection of Mr. Johnson for Secretary of State, probably settles the fate of the numerone applicants for the office of Adjutant Ceneral, from Kennebet, some of them gentlemen have been scouring the State, and have got their pockets stuffed with recommendations.

The two branches have just met in Convention, and elected Phillip C. Johnson, Secretary of State by the following vote. Philip C Johnson,

Samuel P. Benson, All others,

The vote for Councillors was no follows: Dominicus Jordan, 156 GOWEN WILESE. èI 🖁 ATWOOD LIVERSALIES Gurrathy Walse. 157 156 JONAS PARLIN, JOHN BURNHAM, JOHN STICENEY, Incresce S. Kimball. 56 бо David Dunlap, 56 William Singer 56 Thomas Marshall, - 56 Elias Dudley, ... Joseph H. Underwood,

Benj. Bradford,

Alast the convention had separated, Mr. Burr of Brewer moved that the vote accepting the rethe committee to employ a Messenger, be reconsidered, and called upon the Committee to explain why they had not reported the name of the person who made the lowest offer; the Chairman of the Committee not being in his seat, Mr. Dunu of Poland said he believed there were lower offers, but they came from the fed-s and of course were not accepted. Mr. Dunn went on in a most abusive tirade against the Whig party, but was not replied to, which, perhaps, is the best course to take with this man, who, if rumor speaks the truth, lives in the most glorious state of domestic felicity. The House refused to reconsider the vote, and immediate . bearbourned -. Yours,
